

This image of our green taken on 24th February shows a much improved picture following extensive work during the Winter months.

Chemicals applied to the green as per the maintenance schedule supported by brushing and cutting have made a significant improvement to the grass structure, appearance and overall health of the green.

(Drone aerial photos of the green kindly taken by Richard Kiteley)